2016: A Novel of America and the World
 by Marjory Maxwell Donn

ADULT EDUCATON RESOURCE

The accompanying discussion guide makes this novel an excellent resource for adult book discussion groups in Unitarian Universalist congregations. Specific questions for each chapter address the story and characters as well as the many environmental and political issues raised.

Martha and Monty Greenberg face the challenges of life in 2016, such as gasoline costing $25/gal. and their grandson coming down with leukemia, believed to be caused by toxins and radiation. The major subplot, told from a Palestinian perspective, takes place in Bethlehem, Jenin and Jerusalem.
